

Swamp Devil Outfitters Financial Policy

Applicability

This policy applies to all lodging and hunting package bookings with Swamp Devil Outfitters. By making a booking, customers agree to these financial terms.

Payment Methods

Swamp Devil Outfitters accepts all major credit/debit cards and cash. Payments can be made securely through our website or in person.

Deposit and Payment Schedule

A non-refundable deposit of $100 is required to reserve your booking. The remaining balance must be paid on or before your arrival day. Deposits can be transferred to a different hunt if you reschedule.

Refund and Rescheduling Policy

While deposits are non-refundable, customers can reschedule their booking for a future date if the request is made at least three weeks before the original booking date. After this period, rescheduling is not guaranteed.

Additional Services and Fees

Optional services, such as rifle rentals equipped with thermal scopes, are available for an additional $100. Any extra services must be paid for alongside the remaining balance.

Updating Payment Information

Customers are responsible for updating their payment information before arrival if any changes occur. This can be done by contacting us directly.

Privacy and Security

Swamp Devil Outfitters ensures the privacy and security of customers' financial information through encryption and secure payment gateways.

Dispute Resolution

For any financial or billing disputes, customers are encouraged to contact us at swampdeviloutfitters@gmail.com to resolve the issue.
